Mr. James Cavnar, President
Cross International Catholic Outreach

Dear Jim and friends at C.I.C.O,

Pwoje Espwa networks throughout southern Haiti to ease the burden of extreme poverty on children and families. Without the generous financial support and continued prayers from Cross International, our success may have been impossible, challenges may have been insurmountable. I want to express my deepest appreciation for your continued commitment to our mission.

As you know, we offer residential care to more than 650 orphaned, abused, neglected or abandoned children. Your funding helped turn our most basic houses into appropriate homes for these children with fresh paint, bedding, storage and more. As we outgrew our small covered dining area, you met our needs with the donation of an all-purpose building for dining, worship and all community gatherings. You find donors to sponsor an outreach program of home construction for our impoverished neighbors. Emergency aid was given to us after devastating tropical storms. Efforts are being made to raise awareness about AIDS.

Education is a key to unlocking the chains of poverty. Cross International has helped us build classrooms in the village of Tiburon, maintain schools at Vilaj Espwa and Camp Perrin plus expand vocational training at the local prison. In addition to these and other special projects, your monthly support for general operations ensures that our doors remain open to serve the most urgent needs of the poorest of the poor.

As our programs grew, we called upon you to increase your financial contribution. During times of political and economic strife in Haiti, we relied upon you to help us overcome new hurdles. In the face of the current global economic crisis and a time of decreased donations, we thank you for your faithful support. On behalf of myself, the staff and children of Pwoje Espwa Sud, I want you to know that we pray each day in thanksgiving for you and Cross International. We are extremely grateful for your dedication and your kind and loving hearts.

May God bless your efforts to help His poor.
