Dear Mr. Cavnar,

Please accept my congratulations and thanks for all the good being done by Cross Catholic Outreach. I was very grateful to have met recently with Fr. Paul Farin and to have heard more about your efforts and the wonderful work being done in the name of Jesus Christ, by faithful members of His Church.

I was especially impressed by your emphases upon providing integrated care to the poor and needy, which includes not only direct assistance in terms of food, shelter, medicine, and clothing, but also education and self-help initiatives. It would seem that you are also undertaking your works in a particularly helpful way by providing the resources and education for local parishes and organizations to help people in their own area. Working this way, I would think, should increase the possibility of long-term success in an area, and respect both the principles of solidarity and subsidiarity.

I was likewise impressed by your deliberate attention to operating in harmony with the Church, by way of your requesting leadership from many bishops, priests, and religious, and your partnership with the Pontifical Council Cor Unum. As such, it's easy for me to join with so many other bishops who have endorsed the work of Cross Catholic Outreach, and I would certainly encourage parishes and Catholic organizations in the Diocese of Madison to learn more about you, your mission, and how they might join with your worldwide efforts.

Please be assured of my prayers for you, your staff, and all those who are served by Cross Catholic Outreach. With prayers and blessings, I remain,

Faithfully in Christ,

+ Robert C. Morlino
