

Empowering Catholic Churches and Ministries to Help the Poorest of the Poor Worldwide

Hunger and poverty are constant companions to millions of people in developing countries, where jobs and resources are scarce, and struggling governments can't provide basic services such as water, sanitation, education and medical care. As a result, countless men, women and children suffer needlessly from chronic malnourishment, preventable diseases, homelessness, illiteracy and the despair of passing their poverty on to the next generation.

In these areas of the world, the Church remains a beacon of hope to the poor. Catholic priests, nuns and lay leaders in developing countries demonstrate Christ's love by striving to meet the needs of the poor in their midst.

Unfortunately, these servants of God lack the resources to effectively respond to these impoverished communities. They need a partner — Cross Catholic Outreach — to help them serve their neighbors. With the financial support of compassionate American Catholics, Cross Catholic Outreach fills this important role by providing the specific resources these Catholic leaders need to achieve their goals.

Together, Cross Catholic Outreach, its benefactors in the U.S. and its overseas ministry partners are able to provide food to the hungry, safe water to the thirsty, medical aid to the suffering, shelter to the homeless, and education and self-help projects for those struggling to escape the cycle of poverty.

As an official Catholic organization with Pontifical Approval, Cross Catholic Outreach is registered with the Diocese of Palm Beach and is listed in the Official Catholic Directory. Cross Catholic Outreach also has a collaborative relationship with the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development, the Vatican's relief agency in Rome, enabling the charity to respond to natural disasters around the world with rapid emergency relief.
