

Elderly People Support Project

Compassion for Elderly in Need

— Addis Ababa, Ethiopia —

Your Gift Will Bring Them Comfort and Hope

In Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, God is touching the lives of the impoverished elderly and you have an important role to play in empowering that mission of mercy. Through your support of the Brothers of Good Works, God will restore hope to precious men and women, showing them they have value and a purpose in their golden years. A blanket, a meal, a bar of soap: these are just a few simple gifts the Brothers can provide to these poor and fragile elders in their hour of need. These blessings will mean more to them than you can imagine!

Since 2009, the Brothers of Good Works have been serving the elderly and restoring dignity with love, joy, and mercy. By helping their ministry thrive, you can ensure other at-risk men and women will have an opportunity to escape their lives of isolation and receive the care they deserve. The Brothers apply a holistic approach to care, so these precious elders will receive quality care on every level. They will be provided with basic necessities, counselling and mental health services, and spiritual support in an environment that offers them healthy activities and compassionate fellowship.

- Elderly men and women from poor communities in Ethiopia suffer because they lack family support, access to income, or government relief.
- Many of the elderly men and women living in poverty struggle with mental health problems and have a hard time acquiring even the most basic necessities. Often isolated from loved ones and the rest of society, they can easily be forgotten and lose hope.
- For nearly 100 years, the Brothers of Good Works have cared for suffering people in some of the world's most challenging environments.
- Caring for the impoverished elderly is a priority for the Brothers of Good Works, and the work they are already accomplishing has brought hope to needy men and women in the communities they serve.
- The Brothers make sure necessities such as food, clothing, and shoes are provided to those who need them. They also offer services to these men and women, helping them wash clothes and offering facilities where they can take a shower.

For those who suffer so much daily, the gift of a warm blanket brings great comfort.
